

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN COLLEGE OF KANSAS

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT: CHIEF ADVANCEMENT AND TRANSFORMATION OFFICER

VISION, MISSION, AND PURPOSE

Central Christian College of Kansas is a mission driven institution committed to providing a Christ-Centered Education for Character. As such, Central Christian seeks like-minded individuals, committed to Christian Service and Discipleship, in order to sustain a campus community focused on our vision to provide a transformative educational experience, rooted in Christ, to any person desiring to become a faithful steward of heart, mind, soul, and strength.

Founded in 1884, Central Christian College of Kansas maintains a residential program in McPherson, Kansas, though its mission extends much further through its online and graduate programs. CCKK is affiliated with the Free Methodist Church of North America and welcomes all students regardless of gender, race, ethnicity, disability or economic status. In the same way, Central Christian recognizes the benefits of maintaining a diverse faculty and staff, representing the creativity of a loving and innovative God, and who can provide a wide spectrum of perspectives and experiences. We specifically encourage inquiries from candidates from racial and ethnic backgrounds that are currently underrepresented on our faculty and staff.

SUMMARY DESCRIPTION

The CATO will be instrumental in driving institutional growth, financial sustainability, and transformative change to position CCKK for long-term success. This role is pivotal in expanding and deepening the college's philanthropic support, fostering strong relationships with alumni, donors, and community partners, while leading and implementing strategic initiatives aimed at transforming the college's structures, processes, and culture.

This is a staff position, serving as a full-time, exempt employee. The salary is based on credentials and experience. A generous complement of benefits is offered, including health insurance, retirement plan contributions, and tuition remission for the employee and his or her dependents. Beyond those measurable benefits, CCKK is a great place to work, with dedicated faculty and staff serving with whole hearts, shaping the next generation of Christian leaders.

As a member of the Association of Free Methodist Educational Institutions and recognizing that College's commitment to its vision and mission, all employees are required to affirm of the College's evangelical statement of faith and lifestyle expectations. The applicant should consider the missional perspective of the College, before applying (<https://www.centralchristian.edu/about/>).

Additional requirements include:

- Master's required (Doctorate preferred) in related field
- Testimony validating a saving faith in Jesus Christ and a growing awareness of His Lordship
- (John 3:3, 1 Peter 1:23)
- Affirm alignment with the vision and mission of the College, its heritage, beliefs, values, and lifestyle expectations
- Manifest, by daily example, the highest Christian virtue, serving as a Christian role model (1 Timothy 4:12) in attitude, speech, and actions
- Proven history of strong, decisive, and innovative leadership.
- Validated success in fundraising and networking
